ASSIGNMENT LETTER OF AGREEMENT

The following sets out the terms and conditions for the extension of the assignment of Ward Bansley within the Business and Regulatory Law - Litigation Division.

It is agreed that while Ward Bansley is on assignment, he will perform the duties of a Deputy Regional Director and Senior Counsel, in the excluded position number 00008234, at the LC-01 group and level and will report to Brenda Carbonell. The assignment will be extended from March 31, 2014 to August 29, 2014 (initial effective date: December 12, 2013).

This agreement may be amended or terminated at any time upon the mutual consent in writing of the host and home organizations.

During the period of this assignment, Ward Bansley will remain an employee of the Home Organization at their current group and level and shall continue to receive the corresponding salary, and any general salary adjustments and statutory increases, as well as performance pay he is entitled to receive.

The employee continues to remain subject to all provisions set out by the Directive on Executive Compensation of their substantive position and remains on the payroll of the Home Organization.

At the end of the assignment, the employee will return to their Home Organization unless other arrangements have been agreed upon by all parties concerned.

The employee will be subject to the hours of work prescribed by the relevant terms and conditions of employment and in coordination with the Host Organization.

It is agreed that the Home Organization will cover all the cost associated with salary, allowances and job-related benefits, including bar fees, travel and training, during the period of this assignment.

It is agreed that the employee's training, development and career advancement will remain subject to the policies and procedures of the Home Organization.

It is agreed that the Host Organization will provide the Home Organization upon request; with a written performance appraisal of the employee at the end of the fiscal year or at the end of the assignment, if shorter.

It is agreed that the Hast Organization will be responsible for the authorization of the employee's leave and agrees to provide the Home Organization with copies of each leave form detailing all leave taken by the employee during the period of the assignment in a timely manner. All leave forms must be sent to the Compensation Services of the Home Organization.

It is agreed that during the course of this assignment, the employee must maintain a secret security clearance as this is a condition of employment.

All assignments to counsel duties are conditional upon the employee being a member in good standing of a Law Society at the date of the assignment. It is our understanding that the employee is a member of the Law Society of British Columbia. The employee is expected to continue to meet this condition throughout the assignment.

It is agreed that should the employee require workplace accommodation, the Home and Host Organization, will take the appropriate steps in collaboration, in order to respond to the accommodation needs in accordance with the Policy on the Duty to Accommodate Persons with Disabilities in the Federal Public Service and the Host Organization Policy on Accommodating Differences in the Workplace.

This employment is subject to the relevant collective agreement and Directive on Terms and Conditions of Employment. Collective agreements require the employer to deduct the amount of membership dues levied by the bargaining agent from the monthly pay of employees in the bargaining unit conceined. However, due to the nature of its duties, the position is excluded from collective bargaining, which means that no union dues will be deducted from the employee's pay during the period of this assignment.

It is sigreed that the employee must continue to abide, for the length of the assignment, by the Values and Ethics Code of the Department of Justice found at http://jusnet.justice.gc.ca/centre_e/ethics/codeofconduct.htm.

Hi Tara,

Before I forget, your voicemail is not yet set up.

I just want to explain what I'm going to do to FT 8888 in SharePoint as I see that you've already started working on it.

The client submitted a new FT request – FT 8896 to replace FT 8888. Here's what I'm going to do:

- 1. Amend FT 8888 to reflect FT 8896 so not to lose existing info.
- 2. Log FT 8888 but showing cancel.

If you have any questions or concerns, please let me know. Thanks!

ASSIGNMENT LETTER OF AGREEMENT

The following sets out the terms and conditions for the initial assignment of Raj Grewal within the Tax Law Services Division, British Columbia Regional Office.

It is agreed that while Raj Grewal is on assignment, he will perform the duties of a Regional Manager and Senior Counsel, 00008252, at the LC-01 group and level, and will report to Ian Thomas Torrie. The assignment will begin on May 20, 2014 and will end on September 18, 2014.

This agreement may be amended or terminated at any time upon the mutual consent in writing of all parties.

During the period of this assignment, Raj Grewal will remain an employee of the Tax Law Services Division, British Columbia Regional Office, at their current group and level, and shall continue to receive the corresponding salary, any general salary adjustments, and statutory increases, as well as performance pay he is entitled to receive.

The employee continues to remain subject to all provisions set out by the Directive on Executive Compensation of their substantive position and remains on the payroll.

At the end of the assignment, the employee will return to their substantive position unless other arrangements have been agreed upon by all parties concerned.

The employee will be subject to the hours of work prescribed by the relevant terms and conditions of employment of the Host position.

It is agreed that Tax Law Services Division, British Columbia Regional Office will cover all salary, allowances, and job-related benefits, including bar fees, travel, and training during the period of this assignment.

It is agreed that the employee's training, development, and career advancement will remain subject to the policies and procedures of their substantive position.

It is agreed that a written performance appraisal of the employee will be completed at the end of the fiscal year or at the end of the assignment, if shorter.

It is agreed that the manager will be responsible for the authorization of the employee's leave. All leave forms must be sent to the Compensation Services.

It is agreed that during the course of this assignment, the employee must maintain a secret security clearance as this is a condition of employment.

It is agreed that should the employee require workplace accommodation, the Tax Law Services Division. British Columbia Regional Office will take the appropriate steps in collaboration, in order to respond to the accommodation needs in accordance with the Policy on the Duty to Accommodate Persons with Disabilities in the Federal Public Service and the Policy on Accommodating Differences in the Workplace.

This employment is subject to the relevant collective agreement and Directive on Terms and Conditions of Employment. Collective agreements require the employer to deduct the amount of membership dues levied by the bargaining agent from the monthly pay of employees in the bargaining unit concerned. However, due to the nature of its duties, the position is excluded from collective bargaining, which means that no union dues will be deducted from the employee's pay during the period of this assignment.

It is agreed that the employee must continue to abide, for the length of the assignment, by the Values and Ethics Code of the Department of Justice found at: http://jusnet.justice.gc.ca/eng/work-travail/yalue-yaleur/codeofconduct.html

Arrangements affecting the refund for salary, allowances and job-related benefits will be made through:

Manager, Financial Services: Julianna Tsang, 604-666-1390

This request is being forwarded to you because Level 2 staffing sub-delegation is now required for all LC Assignments/ Secondments as per the new HR Delegation, which became effective on September 8, 2014. Mr. Bansley is a substantive LP-03 and he should be paid his regular LP-03 pay during the course of this assignment. This assignment results in minor short-term double banking of the position given Susan Wong's assignment runs to Sept. 19, 2014, however HR in BC is well aware and has approved. Finance has also been apprised. If you have any questions or concerns, please let me know. Thank you, Vik 6.5359
